

Respect in Sport

RESPECT IN SPORT (RIS) – ACTIVITY LEADER course completion required by all Quadrant team staff members over the age of 18* by November 30, 2016.

*On Ice Assistants and Junior Coaches registered on the TRF as those rules are defined by Ringette Alberta are not required to complete Respect In Sport.

The Respect In Sport (RIS) - Activity Leader course is an on-line, self-guided course that takes approximately 2.5 hours in total to complete. RIS' online learning tool is designed with flexibility in mind to fit your schedule. Once started the course can be stopped, saved and resumed at any point prior to required completion date of November 30, 2016.

RIS-Activity Leader certification is issued and valid for 5 years once the online course is completed. RIS-Activity Leader certification is fully transferable to any other sports program (i.e. Calgary Minor Hockey, Calgary Minor Soccer) using the same RIS certification program. If any member of the team staff holds RIS-Activity Leader certification from another sport, please provide proof of certification to the Ringette Calgary Office to update your coaching record prior to the November 30th completion deadline.

The cost of the program is $30.00 per team staff member.

For additional information on this certification refer to RIS-Activity Leader Certification Frequently Asked Question (FAQ) document in the Ringette Calgary website's Coaching Certification section.
